Summer Breeze Tank Top

Designed by Hiromi Glover

Yarn:

Purl Soho Sunshower Cotton would be the perfect yarn for this project to create a fabric that is both light and breathable. Since this tank is intended to be warn during warmer months, the cotton fiber makes Sunshower Cotton the sure selection for the breezy style garment!

Sunshower Cotton

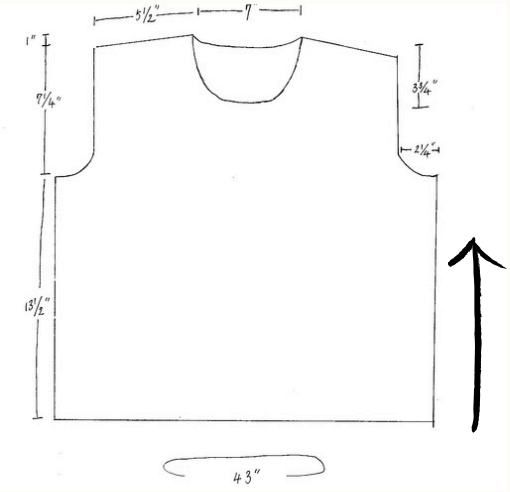
Swatch Details:

18 stitches and 36 rows = 4 inches in garter stitch on US 6 (4mm) needles

Construction:

You will begin this garment at the lower Back edge, then work up to the Armholes, then over the Shoulders, shaping the Neckline, and down to the lower Front edge. You will sew up the side seams to join the Back and Front and then work simple Edgings around the Armholes and Neckband.

Sketch:



This top is intended to be warn with 3-6" of positive ease.

Design Inspiration:

I wanted to create a closet staple for the warmer months that even beginners could feel excited to make. When the warm summer breeze rolls in, there's nothing better than reaching for your favorite handmade tops to welcome in the season.

Design Details:

This tank is designed to be the perfect summer staple and an easy project to take on the go. From the clean edges and simple neckline to the gushy squish of garter stitch, every detail is made for comfort and effortless wear. With a quick and satisfying knit, this piece will be ready just in time for fun in the sun!
