YouGov, the international online research data and analytics technology group, is bringing free data to everyone with the launch of two new game-changing tools.

YouGov BrandIndex Lite and YouGov Profiles Lite allows users to explore their target audiences and track brand performance with best-in-class data tools – completely free. Both are simple-to-use – fast, intuitive, and all in-browser – and powered by YouGov’s industry-leading data. Profiles Lite is available at platform.yougov.com/profiles-lite while BrandIndex Lite is available at platform.yougov.com/brandindex-lite.

The two tools are a key part of YouGov’s public data offering that allows people and businesses to experience the power of YouGov’s data for free. It is YouGov’s vision to be a valued public and client platform used by hundreds of millions of people on a daily basis, enabling intelligent decision-making and informed conversations.

Profiles Lite allows users to get an accurate overview of their target audience, with results tailored to their sector. Users can filter by multiple demographic and attitudinal audience variables, allowing them to discover their audience’s likes, interests and behaviours, purchasing habits, and the best media sources through which to reach them. Profiles Lite has data from 51 markets.

BrandIndex Lite provides a clear snapshot of brand performance from the Buzz metric of our flagship product, YouGov BrandIndex. Users can discover how audiences really feel about their brand, and benchmark against others in their industry, filtering by market, industry and demographic for an accurate overview of their – and their competitors’ – brand performance. BrandIndex Lite data covers 54 markets.

Stephan Shakespeare, CEO and co-founder of YouGov: “Understanding your audiences is vital to building your brand, engaging your customers, and ultimately beating the competition. Today, YouGov is putting more of that power into everyone’s hands, with our completely free tools. All you have to do is create an account and a world of data is immediately at your fingertips. It is our mission to democratise data – making it easier for people to have access to and make use of world class consumer intelligence. Giving millions of people over the world free access to YouGov BrandIndex Lite and YouGov Profiles Lite does just that.”
