ORDER

In brief, the petition is statedly about a dispute between the Petitioner and the Respondent about some alleged non/short payments by the latter of the dues of the Petitioner under a Power Purchase Agreement entered into between the two in respect of a 20 (4X5) MW diesel-based power plant commissioned by the Petitioner in the year 2003, at Bambooflat, South Andaman & Nicobar Islands.

2. The Petitioner made oral submissions, re-iterating the written submissions made in the Petition, about withheld/deducted amounts, claims in respect of HSD density/ revision of rates, non-approval of the actual project cost by the Respondent leading to non-revision of tariff payable to the Petitioner.

3. The Commission observes that the petition, as filed, does not mention any provision of law under which the Petitioner is seeking to invoke intervention of the Commission. The Commission is of the view that the Petition is not maintainable in its present form and is not admitted.

4. The petitioner is, however, at liberty to file a fresh petition in accordance with Joint Electricity Regulatory Commission for State of Goa and UTs (Conduct of Business) Regulations, 2009.
