

Build a steady flow of workers with Fountain

The leading Labor ATS keeps business and professional services staffed

From office administrators to security staff to call center agents, organizations rely on business and professional services providers to keep their companies up and running.

To maintain a healthy stream of staff as your customers' needs ebb and flow, you need a simple and fast solution to fulfill hiring requests at the ready. Fountain, the leading Labor ATS, provides the flexibility to help you hire the high volumes of staff you need as well as qualified workers your customers can depend on.

If you're hiring in business and professional services, you're facing:

- A projected estimated value of $916.77 billion by 2026 for the business services industry.¹
- Projected growth to $7.06 trillion by 2025 for the the total available market (TAM).¹
- An average monthly growth of 34,000 jobs between September 2022 and February 2023, with additional increases in March 2023.²

With Fountain:

- Fill service role shifts like call center agents, security guards, and tax preparers in as little as one day.
- Embed video training into your workflow to get candidates up to speed before they onboard.

Customer Success

Before Fountain, it would take Liveops anywhere from eight to 14 days to onboard an applicant. With Fountain, they reported an applicant completed their entire external onboarding process in just five hours, with 100% automation.
