

Section Five: Additional Resources

Introduction

Section five is the final module of the Child-Centered Documentation Toolkit. Section five is not thematic, but rather an appendix of additional resources and documents, such as videos, fact sheets, and international protocols that are relevant to the overall toolkit. Partners are encouraged to review these resources and use them as they see fit.