Overview

This is a bibliography of materials related to the Patwin language. This bibliography is intended to be a complete record of all publicly available materials, both published and unpublished—but of course it cannot be perfect, and unavoidably some materials will have been left out. Some archival materials may be incompletely cataloged, for instance, or miscataloged as a different language, and therefore difficult to find. I suspect that there may be some Patwin language materials at the Peabody Museum in Harvard, for instance, but I have not been able to positively verify that this is the case. It is also very likely that I have simply failed to find some materials. I am happy to hear about anything that I have overlooked, and the reader should feel free to contact me at lclawyer@ucdavis.edu. One class of materials that I have purposefully left out is those materials which have been created for private use by Patwin communities. Out of respect for the privacy of these communities, these materials are not included here.

The bibliography is divided into six sections, in an attempt to make this large amount of material navigable:

- Published material on the Patwin language
The few published articles which focus exclusively on the Patwin language.
- Unpublished material on the Patwin language
Unpublished linguistic analyses of Patwin.
- Archival materials relevant to the Patwin language
This is the most extensive section in the bibliography. It consists of primary Patwin language materials. The prototypical member of this category would be a word list, field note book, or primary audio recording. These are the primary materials for study of the Patwin language — as opposed to the documents in the “unpublished material” section, which are linguistic analyses and therefore secondary. In some cases these primary materials (especially the field note books) may contain some scattered bits of linguistic analysis, but only extended analyses are included in the “unpublished material” section. Some primary sources are in field note books which also contain primary material on other languages (e.g. Barrett 1905; Haas 1949–1950), but these are still included here. The name and location of the archive(s) housing the document is included, where this information is known. I have included as a separate item every individual archived document, rather than lumping documents together into collections.
- Selected materials mentioning the Patwin language
These are linguistic works which mention the Patwin language among other languages. They may be large surveys such as Golla (2011), more local surveys such as Barrett (1908), works dealing with Patwin’s genetic affiliation such as Golla (1997), or manuscripts about multiple languages like Kelsey (circa 1903–1906).
- Selected materials on other Wintuan languages
Primary and secondary materials on Nomlaki and Wintu. This section is far from exhaustive. I include mostly sources which I have used in my own work, or sources which I deem to be particularly important.
- Materials on Patwin-related culture
Published and unpublished material relevant to the cultures of the peoples associated with the Patwin language. This includes ethnological and ethnogeographical materials. This section is also far from exhaustive.

- Anonymous (n.d.). "Index to Radin materials on Patwin and Wintun". Possibly created by Harvey Pitkin or T.T. Waterman. Manuscript in Pitkin Papers at APS: Mss.Ms.Coll.78 Series I-A, Box Series IA-1.
- Arroyo de la Cuesta, Felipe (1821). "Southern Wintun (Suisun) vocabulary". "Terminos y expresiones de Suisun de N.P. que me explicó Samuel Capita, Page, en 17 enero de 1821." One of the wordlists in the document "Idiomas Californios": BANC MSS 2003/235 c at the Bancroft Library. This document is actually E. F. Murray's 1878 copy of Arroyo de la Cuesta's original document. Citation included here because this wordlist is sometimes cited separately in this way (using only Arroyo de la Cuesta's name as author) in the Patwin literature.
- (1837). "Lengua de California: Santa Ynez, Calif., 1837: Leciones de Indios: Vocabularios de idiomas de los Indios". Vocabularies, music notations, and grammatical descriptions. Collected at various missions between 1821 and 1837. BANC MSS C-C 63a–b. The Bancroft Library, University of California, Berkeley.
- Arroyo de la Cuesta, Felipe and E. F. Murray (1878a). "Idiomas Californios". Comparative tables of vocabularies made by Murray in 1878 at the request of Bancroft, with data from Arroyo de la Cuesta's original. The languages are listed as: from the natives at San Luis Ray (Luiseño), Santa Barbara (Chumash), San Luis Obispo (Chumash), San Antonio and San Miguel (Salinan), and the tribes Juichun (Ohlone), Karkin (Ohlone), Sachan (Miwok), Uhimen (Miwok), Nopthrinthres (Yokuts) and Suisun (South Patwin). The speakers are Celso Tolecse, Chrispo Johuocsiu, Samuel Capita and Andres Colopkel. Also includes a letter by E. F. Murray about the transcription, a note by Alfred L. Kroeber about possible publication of the glossary, and annotations on transcript made by Kroeber. BANC MSS 2003/235 c (17 leaves). The Bancroft Library, University of California, Berkeley.
- (1878b). "Idiomas Californios". Copied by Murray in 1878 from Arroyo de la Cuesta's original. Includes vocabularies of the following languages: Esselen, San Antonio (Salinan), San Miguel (Salinan), San Luis Obispo (Obispeño Chusmash), Santa Barbara (Barbareño Chumash), La Purisima (Purismeño Chusmash), Santa Inez (Inezeño Chumash), Nopthrinthres of San Juan Bautista (a Yokuts dialect), Lathruunen (Yokuts), San Luis

- Rey (Uto-Aztecan), Karkin (Costanoan), Saclan (Miwok), Juichun (Costanoan), Huimen (Marin Miwok), and Suisun (South Patwin). Notes on pages 2–3 by Gatschet. MS 385, National Anthropological Archives, Smithsonian Institution (32 pages).
- Arroyo de la Cuesta, Felipe, E. F. Murray, and Madison S. Beeler (n.d.). “Karkin and Suisun Patwin vocabulary”. Undated verifax copy of Beeler’s handwritten copy of Murray’s 1878 copy of Arroyo de la Cuesta’s 1821 word list. Beeler presumably used Murray’s document BANC MSS 2003/235 c at the Bancroft library. Beeler’s copy is here: Survey for California and Other Indian Languages, Berkeley: Cuesta.001.
- Baldwin, Paul, Jean Carr, and C. Hart Merriam (1935). “Field notebook: Langunitas to Kahchil near Colusa, including Aug. 23 field trip to Tomales (Sept. 19–22, 1935)”. C. Hart Merriam Papers, BANC FILM 1022 (reel 135). The Bancroft Library, University of California, Berkeley.
- Barrett, S. A. (1905). “Wintu field notes”. Notebook with placenames for several sites; note on cover reads “Wintun Geog. used in ethno geog paper”. Survey for California and Other Indian Languages, Berkeley: Barrett.012. File also contains notes on Patwin Hesi ceremony texts.
- (1909a). “Vocabulary from Northern California languages”. File cards with Patwin vocabulary and some Wintun cultural information. Separate section of a comparative “vocabulary other than Pomo” (Miwok, Wintuan, Yuki, and Wappo). Survey for California and Other Indian Languages, Berkeley: Barrett.004.
 - (1909b). “Wintun songs and speeches, by Salvador (Wintun of Cortina Valley)”. Cylinder series 46: cylinders 24-1924–24-1959 (14-1491–14-1518) (Barrett #1–28). Hearst Museum of Anthropology, Berkeley.
 - (1909, 1957). “Speech and song recordings: Transcriptions and translations”. Part of Pitkin Papers, APS: Mss.Ms.Coll.78 Series I-C, Box Series I-1.
 - (n.d.[b]). “Patwin field recordings”. Reel tape (numbered L-17) copy of original wax cylinders (Nos. 1495–1499 and 1508–1512). Informant is Salvador, of Cortina. SCOIL mistakenly attributes these recordings to Kroeber. Survey for California and Other Indian Languages, Berkeley: Kroeber.t001.012.
 - (n.d.[c]). “Patwin field recordings”. Reel tape (numbered L-18) copy of original wax cylinders (Nos. 1513–1518). Informant is Salvador, of Cortina. SCOIL mistakenly attributes these recordings to Kroeber. Survey for California and Other Indian Languages, Berkeley: Kroeber.t001.013.

- Anonymous (circa 1940). "Culture Element Distributions: Washington, Oregon, California, Utah, New Mexico correlations". Includes Haisla, Quilleute, Quinault, Chinook, Klikitat, Tillamook, Coos (?), Patwin (?), Chimariko, Nisenan (?), Skokomish, Duwamish, Kaibab Paiute, Southern Ute, and Zuñi. This item was found with a collection of archaeological and CED [Culture Element Distributions] studies, in rough draft form, in Kroeber's office at the time of his death. Possibly it represents a collaboration between Omer C. Stewart and Philip Drucker, but this is a mere guess; possibly it is by Kroeber. The other papers accompanying it are dated 1940.
