

Your West Vancouver Memorial Library card gives you access to ebooks, audiobooks, movies, music, and more! To get started, all you need is your Library card and PIN (usually the last 4 digits of your phone number). You must be a West Vancouver resident to access the library's databases. Some services may ask that you create a simple account with a username, email, and password.

Print Media

Libby gives you access to The Library2Go collection, with more than 55,000 books and magazines to choose from in both ebook and audiobook formats. You can borrow 7 books or audiobooks at a time for 3 weeks and can place up to 7 holds.

PressReader provides daily newspapers from all over the world in hundreds of languages. You can search by country, language, or the name of the newspaper. The newspapers have a rolling archive of between 5-90 days.

Music and Film

Naxos allows you to stream classical, jazz and world music. It works best on a laptop or desktop computer. The mobile device apps are called NML, NML Jazz, and NML World. The mobile apps require you to create a separate account for each app.

Kanopy provides free streaming access to movies, documentaries, and TV shows. Highlights include the Criterion Collection, important classics and contemporary films, and the Great Courses, lectures by experts on various topics.

Medici.tv streams videos of classical music, opera, dance, and jazz, offering a catalogue of over 3,000 programs, including concerts, ballets, operas, documentaries, and master classes, filmed from the 1940s to the present day. The mobile app does not work with library subscriptions.

Online Learning

LinkedIn Learning offers video tutorials that can help you learn software, creative, and business skills. Use these courses to brush up existing skills or develop new ones. The mobile device app is called LinkedIn Learning. Log in using the organization: "westvanlibrary.ca"
