

Pending draft legislation at the end of 9th term

Legislative work of the European Parliament pauses as of 25 April, leaving 119 draft proposals for the next Parliament to deal with after the European elections.

The incoming Parliament's governing bodies will discuss and decide at the start of the 10th term whether and how to continue work started by the previous Parliament.

There are 119 pending legislative proposals (Co-decision) to be considered by the next Parliament:

- 52 files have already been adopted by Parliament in first reading without prior agreement with member states (first reading closed);
- 4 files have a plenary mandate to begin negotiations with Council;
- 11 files have been voted in committee and are ready for plenary to adopt the mandate to start negotiations;
- 4 files are at the stage of committee draft reports;
- 48 files are still in a preparatory phase.

Examples of pending legislative procedures are listed below. Complete information is to be found on Parliament's Legislative Observatory.
