

Modern hardware helps ease concerns around hybrid work

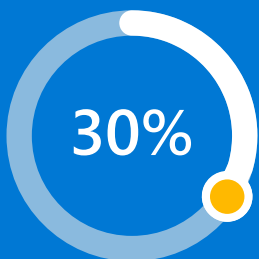

Hybrid work is here to stay and 3-in-4 Security Decision Makers feel that the move to hybrid work leaves their organization more vulnerable to security threats

Concerns surrounding outdated hardware are top-of-mind agree outdated hardware leaves organizations more open to attacks average amount of hardware in an organization's environment that is outdated

Software isn't enough, modern hardware is the solution of Security Decision Makers believe software alone is not enough protection from emerging threats

Nearly 9-in-10 agree modern hardware would help protect against future threats

